

Hello, and welcome.

You are considering renting an apartment on our land here in Caspar. You may know that we are an unintentional, loosely organized community. Most of us have lived here for decades – the average tenancy is over 25 years.

We hope you understand that coming to live here is a serious decision that will influence us all – ours is not a conventional arrangement. Therefore, please forgive us for asking some serious questions that will help us determine that you will fit in well.

Thank you for your patience.
